LIST SOTHEBY'S INTERNATIONAL REALTY AGENTS RECEIVE RECOGNITION FOR OUTSTANDING CLIENT SERVICE

Twenty-five percent of company agents nominated for Honolulu Board of REALTORS® Aloha 'Āina Awards

HONOLULU – LIST Sotheby's International Realty is proud to announce that 25 percent of their real estate agents have been nominated for the Honolulu Board of REALTORS® Aloha 'Āina REALTOR® Awards Program.

Since 1998, the Honolulu Board of REALTORS® has organized the Aloha 'Āina REALTOR® Awards Program to publicly recognize REALTORS® who have demonstrated the highest ethical standards and dedication to the real estate profession. The awards program also honors REALTORS® who have protected and promoted the interest of their clients and treated all parties honestly. Only clients are eligible to submit nominations for the Aloha 'Āina REALTOR® Awards Program and candidates must be active REALTORS® members in good standing with the Honolulu Board of REALTORS®.

“We are extremely pleased and honored that 18 of our associates have been nominated for such a prestigious award,” said Myra Brandt, Principal Broker for LIST Sotheby's International Realty. “We understand the importance of maintaining and fostering client relationships far beyond the sales transaction. Whether our clients are Hawaii residents or from overseas, LIST Sotheby's is committed to ensuring that each customer receives the highest level of luxury real estate service.”
