FIRST INSURANCE COMPANY OF HAWAII APPOINTS TWO NEW ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENTS

HONOLULU – First Insurance Company of Hawaii (FICOH) has announced two recent promotions: Reynold Doi to Assistant Vice President of Claims in charge of the Property, Claims Operations, Appraiser and Total Loss teams, and Drew Nagai to Assistant Vice President of Risk & Safety Management.

“Reynold and Drew have exemplified what it means to be a dedicated worker and leader at First Insurance,” said Jeff Shonka, FICOH president and CEO. “These newly appointed assistant vice presidents have demonstrated exceptional service in their fields and I believe both will be outstanding additions to our Officer team.”

With more than 40 years of insurance claims experience, 16 years of which were served at FICOH, Doi brings a wealth of knowledge to his new position within the Claims department. His prior positions at First Insurance include senior adjuster, supervisor of Property, PIP and Subrogation units and Claims manager.

Like Doi, Nagai also built his career in the insurance industry through previous positions at other insurance companies before joining FICOH in 2007. While at FICOH, he has held the titles of senior technical specialist and manager of the Risk & Safety Management department, which employs the latest tools and strategies to help commercial clients manage their risk.

Nagai has earned various insurance designations including Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter, Associate in Loss Control Management, Associate in Premium Auditing and Construction Risk Insurance Specialist.

“I’m pleased to welcome Reynold and Drew to our FICOH Officer team,” Shonka said. “With their leadership and customer-first mindset, I’m confident they will continue to contribute to the long-term success of First Insurance in the Hawaii market.”

Both Reynold Doi and Drew Nagai’s promotions within their respected departments took effect last month.
