ISLAND AIR LAUNCHES ALOHA FRIDAY SUMMER JAM SERIES

Free Live Music at Honolulu International Airport Departure Gates for Summer Travelers

HONOLULU — Island Air is making summer travel more enjoyable, island style, by offering live musical entertainment. Each Friday from July 15 through August 26, noon to 2 p.m., passengers at the Honolulu International Airport Commuter Terminal will be treated to Island Air's Aloha Friday Summer Jam Series featuring free entertainment by local musicians.

The Aloha Friday Summer Jam Series will showcase eight Island musicians and entertainers who will rotate throughout the summer. They include Keauhou, Vance & Eric, Grant Kono, Shane Dalire-Na'auao, Pesega Liki Tavete Jr., Zachary Hun, Tarita Keohokalole-Look and Natachia Agres.

"Island Air is proud to showcase these talented musicians and entertainers who will help interisland travelers kick off Aloha Friday with outstanding island music," said David Uchiyama, president and CEO of Island Air. "Our Aloha Friday Summer Jam Series is part of Island Air's continuing commitment to enhance the overall travel experience for our passengers."

In addition to live music during the summer, Island Air offers additional travel amenities at its Honolulu International Airport terminal to provide passengers with the best interisland travel experience, including free WiFi, free charging stations, complimentary coffee and newspapers from 5:30 to 10:30 a.m., convenient parking and shorter TSA security lines.
