ISLAND AIR ADDS SUMMER FLIGHTS

Increased Flights to Maui and Hawaii Island to Meet Summer Travel Demand

HONOLULU — Responding to increased demand for interisland flights this summer, Island Air has added flights to Kahului and Kona. The airline has added three roundtrip flights between Honolulu and Kahului on Fridays and Sundays, and one roundtrip flight between Honolulu and Kona on Fridays and Sundays. The seasonal flights will be in operation through the end of the Labor Day weekend on Sept. 4.

“We are happy to accommodate our customers’ requests for additional flights to Kahului and Kona during the busy summer travel season, particularly on Fridays and Sundays, which are peak travel days for weekend getaways,” said David Uchiyama, president and chief executive officer of Island Air. “We hope these additional flights will provide more convenient options for residents and visitors to Island hop this summer.”

With the additional summer flights, Island Air operates:

- Six roundtrips between Honolulu and Kahului each Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, and nine roundtrips each Friday and Sunday.
- Five roundtrips between Honolulu and Kona each Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, and six roundtrips each Friday and Sunday.
- Six roundtrips daily between Honolulu and Līhu‘e.
