ISLAND AIR PARTNERS WITH MAUI COFFEE COMPANY TO SERVE ISLAND COFFEE

Maui-blend coffee to be served in-flight and at Honolulu Airport passenger terminal

HONOLULU — Island Air has partnered with Maui Coffee Company as its new coffee vendor to serve fresh-brewed Hawaii-grown coffee on its interisland flights. Starting Aug. 15, Island Air will serve Maui Coffee Company's Maui-blend coffee on all of its morning flights. Complimentary Maui-blend coffee will also be available at Island Air's departure terminal at Honolulu International Airport daily between 5:30 and 10:30 a.m.

In addition to offering coffee as part of its in-flight beverage service, Island Air provides complimentary coffee and newspapers in the mornings, as well as free Wi-Fi access and charging stations at its Honolulu International Airport terminal as part of its commitment to enhance the interisland travel experience for passengers.

"We are proud to partner with Maui Coffee Company to offer our passengers a fresh cup of locally grown coffee to get their morning started while traveling interisland," said David Uchiyama, Island Air's president and CEO.
